

Acute Training Solutions

ADD Awareness Assessment

1. What is the estimated percentage of children are affected by Attention Deficit Disorder?
2. What is Attention Deficit Disorder also known as?
3. What is the age when children can first start to show some symptoms of ADD?
4. What is the usual age bracket when the initial symptoms can develop further?
5. Which gender is mostly affected?
6. What 'processes' do the frontal lobes of the brain deal with?
7. Do all children with ADD show the same patterns of behaviour?
8. What is the most predominant symptom of ADD?
9. What accompanying disorders can ADD be associated with?
10. ADD affects the ability to control what is said and done – what is the word for this?
11. ADD also affects the ability to control the amount of physical activity appropriate to a situation – what is the word for this?
12. What percentage of children with ADD are affected by Dyslexia?

13. The session detailed 10 specific symptoms of ADD – write down details of at least five of these symptoms

14. How many types of ADD are there?

15. Can you remember their names?

16. What are the effects of ADD?

17. What percentage of children continue to show signs of ADD into adulthood?

18. What is the aim of medication?

19. What is the name of the stimulant drug used as a treatment for ADD?

20. What types of other interventions are there for ADD?