

TRAINER VACANCY

First Aid Trainer

About Acute Training Solutions

Acute Training Solutions are one of the UK's most trusted healthcare training providers. We work with some of the largest healthcare providers, councils and NHS units in the country, training over 10,000 nurses, managers and healthcare workers every year.

About the training role

We're looking to recruit qualified first aid trainers to deliver face-to-face and virtual training courses to local councils, NHS units and other private care groups throughout the UK.

It is essential that candidates have a recognised training qualification to deliver first aid training. Applicants should have knowledge of the UK's health and social care system and a passion to educate others. As a minimum, all applicants are required to own a smart phone, a laptop and a projector.

Training location

We deliver First Aid training across the UK but have a growing requirement for delivery in Wales. We offer an accommodation and subsistence allowance for travel.

What we offer

Acute Training Solutions will provide all the necessary training materials required to deliver all first aid courses including presentations, equipment and competency frameworks. We take care of all the post course paperwork, leaving you free to concentrate of the most important job of all – effectively teaching your skills to others.

Why work with Acute

- Flexible working hours
- Great rates of pay
- Face to face and or webinar trainer opportunities
- Pre and post training support
- The opportunity to work with the UK's leading health providers

How to apply

If you have the necessary skills to become an Acute Trainer, and are willing to travel, please email us at jobs@acutetrainingsolutions.co.uk to begin the recruitment process.
